Sponsorship prospectus

PyCon Namibia 2019 seeks commercial support.

Previous editions of the conference were sponsored by some of the best-known names in the world of Python programming, including the Python Software Foundation, GitHub and Divio.

Sponsoring PyCon Namibia will put your company in front of an international audience of software professionals, entrepreneurs, scientists and students at NIPAM in Windhoek.

PyCon is a successful event, now in its fifth year. It brings software professionals to Namibia from across Africa, Europe and north and south America. Join us!
